A ride to finish the year riding under the famous sun of Provence. Day or half day rides in the Luberon Regional Nature Park, in the forests or along vineyards, olive and other fruit trees. Hot picnics will be brought by our assistant. You will come back every night to le Mas de Recaute to enjoy the aperitive with Didier, your host, in front of the fire place. You will appreciate dinners prepared by our chef Gaël. And for the New Year eve, a memorable Provençal dinner and party.

12/26: After airport or train collection, riders will gather at the “Mas de Recaute” your lovely French Farm Home late in the afternoon. Introduction to your accommodation, an aperitif in front of the fire place, and presentation of the ride will mark the start of your week in Provence. Dinner at the host’s table.

12/27: A short hack to get you in the saddle in the hills around the Mas (Provincial farm). Two hours in the morning and two hours in the afternoon with a conducted tour of a cellar and a tasting of wines of “Côtes du Luberon”. Back to the farmhouse, you will enjoy a rest in front of the fire place before the dinner prepared by our chef.

12/28: Today, you will ride to the Durance river bank for a lovely picnic lunch with aperitif, cheeses, salads, local pies, local wines and coffee. Riding down the hills, you will discover the entire Durance valley, and take a glimpse at the village of Lauris, perched on its cliff. The ride back will be an easy ride through agricultural landscape. You will discover the rich soil that permits this area to get the best production of : wine, asparagus, olives, truffles, cherries, apricots, melons... the Provence treasures !

12/29: Take off for a two day trail ride. Horses transfer in truck up to the plateau of the Claparèdes: Bories, little sheds in stones, and lavender fields. Head back following the “Gorges de l’Aiguebrun, a famous site for its climbing cliffs. Picnic next to from the superb stoned Bonnieux village. Back at Mas de Recaute at the end of the afternoon.

12/30: Second day trail ride. Take off to Lourmarin, one of the most beautiful village of the Luberon ... and of France. Picnic at the foothill. Then, go up the cretes, where you can discover the Mediteranean sea far to the south and the Alps to the north. Back at the truck for the transfer up to the Mas de Recaute.

12/31: Half day off or morning trip in the minibus around the Luberon regional nature park: Lauris, Lourmarin, Ansois. Lunch in Lourmarin. Afternoon ride in the pine tree hills and along olive trees, vineyards and other fruit trees with a stop in a cave for a wine tasting. Provençal diner end new year’s Eve.

01/01: Departure after breakfast.

Le Mas de Recaute.
